No. F.3(63)/62-LSG.—The following bye-laws made by the New Delhi Municipal Committee under the provisions of sub-clause (i) of clause (e) of section 188, section 190 and section 199 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, as in force in the limits of the said Committee, relating to the Encamping Grounds, having been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner, Delhi, under sub-section (1) of section 201 of the said Act, are hereby published for general information and shall come into force on the expiry of six weeks from the date of publication of this notification.

BYE-LAWS

1. Short Title.—These bye-laws may be called the Encamping Grounds (Regulation) Bye-Laws, 1961.

2. Definitions.—In these bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a) "Camp" means a group of temporary structure or tents put up or used to house office, stores and labourers employed in connection with any construction work;
- (b) "Committee" means the New Delhi Municipal Committee, New Delhi;
- (c) "Encamping Ground" means any land or plot of land belonging to an owner or a lessee situated within the jurisdiction of the Committee which is used or intended to be used for the purpose of establishing camps;
- (d) "Medical Officer" means the officer appointed for the time being as the Medical Officer of Health of the Committee and includes an Assistant Medical Officer of Health of the Committee;
- (e) "owner or lessee" means the owner or lessee of an encamping ground and includes his authorised agent or representative; and
- (f) "Secretary" means the Officer appointed for the time being as the Secretary of the Committee.

3. Establishment of camps.—(1) No land or plot of land shall be used as an encamping ground without the previous permission in writing of the Secretary.

(2) Every owner or lessee intending to establish a camp or camps on any encamping ground shall intimate in writing his intention of doing so to the Secretary one week before the date of such establishment. He shall also furnish the following particulars alongwith such intimation:—

- (a) approximate number of tents or temporary structures intended to be pitched up or to be put up,
- (b) approximate number of persons who will occupy the camp,
- (c) the probable dates of opening and closing of the camp,
- (d) total camp area and its boundaries.

(3) No tent or structure of any kind shall be erected on an encamping ground without the previous sanction of the Committee.

(4) No camp shall be allowed to be occupied till the sanitary and conservancy arrangements of the camp are declared satisfactory by the Medical Officer.

4. Housing arrangements.—(1) In every camp, the area of accommodation shall be not less than thirty square feet per person. In case of families with the labourers, there shall be at least two rooms for one family and each room shall be not less than eight feet in height.

(2) There shall be a proper cooking place of six feet into five feet with flue and pucca drain connected with sewer or soakpit, as the case may be, for each family.

(3) In consideration of the conservancy services rendered by the Committee, a fee at the following rate shall be charged from the owner or lessee, their agents or occupiers of the camp:—

1. Tents or huts to house the office and store etc. Re. 1/- per hut or tent per day.
2. Tents or huts to house labourers 50 nP. per tent or hut per day.

5. Erection of latrines, urinals, bathing places, etc.—(1) Every owner or lessee shall provide latrines as prescribed below at every camp on suitable sites approved by the Medical Officer:—

	No. of Latr seats	No. of	No. of h to

(b) Where the number of occupants exceeds 50 but does not exceed 100	6	6	6
(c) Where the number of occupants exceeds 100	6 per hundred	6 per hundred	6 per hundred

(2) All surfaces of latrines and privies shall be so constructed that all solids fall directly into a movable receptacle fitted close beneath the seat.

(3) Where persons of both sexes are residing there shall be displayed outside each latrine a notice in the language understood by a majority of labourers. "FOR MEN ONLY" or "FOR WOMEN ONLY", as the case may be. The notice shall also bear the figure of a man or a woman, as the case may be.

(4) Every latrine shall be under cover and partitioned off to secure privacy and each portion shall have a proper door and fastenings.

(5) There shall be an adequate supply of water close to the urinals and latrines.

(6) In every camp, there shall be provided filtered water taps at the rate of three per thousand of the occupants in the camp.

(7) All water borne latrines, water closets and urinals shall be provided in every camp in accordance with the provisions of the Draining Bye-laws made by the Committee.

(8) All service latrines, privies and urinals shall be constructed according to the directions of the Medical Officer and shall be equipped with all sanitary plans as may be directed by that officer.

(9) The floor of every kitchen, bathing place, latrine privy and urinal shall be of impervious material like cement and shall be at least six inches above the level of the surface of the adjoining ground and shall slope to the drain connected with the sewer or soak-pit.

(10) The walls of every kitchen, bathing place, latrine and urinal shall be cement plastered to the height of four feet from the floor.

(11) No water fresh or sullage will be allowed to flow or accumulate on open ground. All waste water shall be drained by pucca drains into a sewer or a soak-pit.

6. Anti-malaria measures.—(1) All necessary precautions shall be taken by the owner or lessee and the occupants for anti-malaria measures in accordance with the directions issued in this behalf by the Medical Officer.

(2) No stray tins or chatties shall be left out or pits made where water may collect and lead to mosquito breeding.

7. Stable and Cow houses.—Where animals are kept in a camp, the owner or lessee shall make adequate and suitable arrangements for stables and cow houses and maintain them subject to the provisions of the byelaws of the Committee that are applicable to stables and cow houses.

8. Shops.—Only shops dealing in a raw material such as bania shops, vegetable shops, meat shops or cloth merchant shops may be allowed in a camp, provided that the conditions laid down in the Delhi Prevention of Food Adulteration Rules 1956, are complied with. No shops dealing in cooked food articles shall be allowed in a camp.

9. Animal slaughter.—No animal shall be slaughtered in a camp.

10. Births, deaths and infectious diseases.—(1) All births, deaths and cases of infectious diseases in a camp shall be reported immediately by the owner or lessee to the Medical Officer.

(2) For the purposes of this bye-law, the infectious diseases are:—
